Missions Prayer Emphasis

Frontiers: Jonah of Nineveh

For four weeks, Jonah has been traveling to a number of different cities and towns to teach the Gospel. He asks that we PRAY for those who attended these events that they will find rest in the Lord, that those who are facing hardships because of their faith might have peace of mind and heart, and that there would be "comfort and peace in the middle of growing violence, and of political and economic failure." PRAISE GOD that two new Libraries have been added; from January to July "25 new members have come to know the Truth and have joined the Library." "PRAY for their safety and spiritual growth and bold witness in a hard place."

PRAY for his personal security and safety; he was required to provide important personal information to an authority in the country and does not feel at peace about this. PRAY for Jennifer; her heart and health are the same. She remains in this country for medical care and family support.
