BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN

Loch Raven Presbyterian Church is participating in the Center for Pregnancy Concerns' annual baby bottle fundraising campaign. The baby bottle campaign ends on June 20 (Father's Day). In lieu of collecting coins in baby bottles, this year's campaign will feature the collection of checks and cash. If you wish to make a donation, please place your check or cash contribution in the box at the welcome kiosk in the lobby. Make checks payable to "Center for Pregnancy Concerns." Do not make checks payable to LRPC and please do not place any LRPC offering envelopes in this box. Contributions to the Center for Pregnancy Concerns will not appear on your annual LRPC giving statement. If you have any questions, please contact Sharon Mariani or Josh Stenger.

Missions Prayer Emphasis

BALTIMORE RESCUE MISSION, MEN'S DIVISION: CHUCK

BUETTNER/ KARIS HOME: JANNA BUETTNER

PRAY for the leadership of Baltimore Rescue Mission as they deal with replacing the mission's van. It was stolen from in front of the mission earlier this past week and taken for a joyride. The driver crashed into two cars, and the insurance company has totaled it. PRAISE that the Buettners' son-in-law has graduated from Pensacola Christian School. He and his family have just re-located in this area, and he will work alongside Chuck. The plan is that this son-in-law will step into the director's position when Chuck retires. PRAY for safe family travel as their daughter will be returning to the area after the end of the school year.
